

Class List – September – October 2021

Cuddle Wrap: Fri., Sept. 10, Noon – 3pm

$15

Fall is the time you want to throw something simple over your shoulders. Cuddle is the perfect fabric. The drape is sewn in so you just throw it on and go. You can add a fringe or leave it plain. Everyone should have one.

Yummy Soft Scarf: Fri., Sept. 24, 11am – Noon

$5

This 60 inch scarf wraps around you neck twice. It keeps your neck warm and cuddled in softness. These scarfs make classy Holiday gifts that your whole family will love.

Classic Log Cabin: Wed., Oct. 6, 11am – 3pm

$20

Eleanor Burns keeps the construction simple and large scale. 2 ½ inch strips sewn together with chain sewing means you are making more than one block at a time. This is a great beginner project and fun for all skill levels.

Wallhanging or Baby Quilt: Fri., Oct. 8 & 22, Noon – 3pm

$30

This is a 45" x 45" quilt looks complicated but it is fast and simple. Make it as a wallhanging or table topper. Use children's prints and it is a baby quilt. Or make it bigger for any use you need.

BOM: Future dates. 9/15, 9/29, 10/13, 10/27, 11/17

This class is full.

New Block of the Month starting in January. It is called Heartland Heritage. Directions for each block is printed on one card. There are tulips, dogs, sewing machines, trees and many others. Watch for a photo of the sample quilt in September.
